To compliment our range of paid for newspapers in the East London area which include the East London Advertiser and the Newham Recorder, the Stratford & Newham Express is brought to readers in a different way, delivered free to their homes every week.

The free distribution focuses on a more compact area consisting of Stratford, Forest Gate and West Ham. The relationship with readers is just as strong, with frequent debate and letters pages full to the brim as local residents and businesses rely on the newspaper to lobby and petition issues which are important to them.
